Opening Sentences

As if this were the only time, and this the only place,
and we the only people, Jesus Christ will meet us.

As if this were the only time, and this the only place,
and we the only people, let us worship God.

New Every Morning is the Love

New every morning is the love
our wakening and uprising prove;
through sleep and darkness safely brought,

Restored to life and power and thought.

New mercies, each returning day,
hover around us while we pray;
new perils past, new sins forgiven,
new thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

If on our daily course our mind be set to hallow all we find;
new treasures till of countless price
God will provide for sacrifice.

Old friends, old scenes will lovelier be,
as more of heaven in each we see;
some softening gleam of love and prayer shall dawn on every cross and care.

The trivial round, the common task,
will furnish all we ought to ask:
room to deny ourselves, a road
to bring us daily nearer God.

Only, O Lord, in thy dear love fit us for perfect rest above;
and help us, this and every day,
to live more nearly as we pray.

Prayer

You found out what we were doing and you intervened.
"Come and do it together, come and do it with me," you said.

So, thank you, Lord,
for intervening in our private lives.

You promised us nothing by way of success, recognition, possessions, or reward.

"These things will come at the right time when you walk with me," you said.

So, thank you, Lord,
for promising us nothing.

You gave us no resources apart from ourselves - hands meant for caring, lips meant for praising, hearts meant for loving - and the Holy Spirit to make us restless until we change.

So, thank you, Lord,
for the essential gifts.

Then, just when we think we have it right as to where we should go and what we should do; just when we're ready to take on the world, you come, like a beggar, to our back door, saying, "This is the way. I am the way." And offering us bread and wine.

So, thank you, Lord,

for coming again and keeping your word,
and showing you care for us and for all people.
Amen.

call us anew to be salt for the earth.

*Not in the dark of buildings confining,
not in some heaven, light years away,
but here in this place the new light is shining,
now is the Kingdom, now is the day*

Word of God

1 Kings
Ephesians

SING A NEW SONG UNTO THE LORD

refrain

*Sing a new song unto the Lord;
let your song be sung from mountains high.
Sing anew song unto the Lord,
singing alleluia.*

*Yahweh's people dance for joy.
O come before the Lord
and play for him on glad tambourines,
and let your trumpet sound.*

refrain

*Rise, O children, from your sleep;
your Saviour now has come.
He has turned your sorrow to joy,
and filled your soul with song.*

refrain

*Glad my soul, for I have seen
the glory of the Lord.
The trumpet sounds; the dead shall be raised.
I know my Saviour lives.*

refrain

Gospel
Reflection

HERE IN THIS PLACE NEW LIGHT IS STREAMING/GATHER US IN

*Here in this place new light is streaming;
now is the darkness vanished away.
See in this space our fears and our dreamings, brought here to you in the light of this day.*

*We are the young – our lives are a mystery;
we are the old – who yearn for your face.
We have been sung throughout all of history,
called to be light to the whole human race.*

*Here we will take the wine and the water;
here we will take the bread of new birth.
Here you shall call your sons and your daughters,*

Now and forevermore.

Let us pray for those who face death today,

May God provide for you all that is needed for body, mind and soul

as you face this journey.

May Christ take your soul in his arms,
And bring you through the balancing time
To the dwelling place of peace
And make it your home for ever.

And let us pray for ourselves.

Enable us, great God, to pass this day
As pass the saints in heaven,

To spend this day as spend the household of heaven,
And love this day, which you have perfected.

Amen.

Someone's praying Lord, kumbaya
Someone's praying Lord, kumbaya
Someone's praying Lord, kumbaya
Oh Lord, kumbaya. Refrain.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Tune: Kum by Yah)

Father God in Heaven, Lord Most High.
Hear your children's prayer, Lord Most High.
Hallowed be your name, Lord Most High.
O Lord, hear our prayer.

May your Kingdom come, here on earth.
May your will be done, here on earth.
As it is in heaven, so on earth.
O Lord, hear our prayer.

Give us daily bread, day by day.

And forgive our sins, day by day.

As we too forgive, day by day.

O Lord, hear our prayer.

Lead us in your way, make us strong.
When temptations come, make us strong.

Save us from all sin, keep us strong.

O Lord, hear our prayer.

All things come from you, all are yours.
Kingdom, glory, power, all are yours.
Take our lives and gifts, all are yours.

O Lord, hear our prayer.

Invitation

This is the table, not of the Church, but of the Lord.
It is to be made ready for those who love him and who want to love him more.

So, come,

you who have much faith and you who have little,

you who have been here often and you who have not been here for a long time, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed.

Come, not because I invite you:

it is our Lord.

It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

The Story

Now let us hear the story of how this sacrament began.

On the night on which Jesus was betrayed, he sat at supper with his disciples.

While they were eating, he took a piece of bread, said a blessing, broke it and gave it to them with the words,

"This is my body. It is broken for you. Do this to remember me."

Later, he took a cup of wine, saying,

"This cup is God's new covenant, sealed with my blood.

Drink from it, all of you, to remember me."

So now, following Jesus' example and command, we take this bread and this wine, the ordinary things of the world which Christ will make special. And as he said a prayer before sharing, let us do so too.

Eucharistic Prayer B

Gratitude, praise, hearts lifted high, voices full and joyful ... these you deserve.
For when we were nothing, you made us something.
When we had no name and no faith and no future,
you called us your children.
When we lost our way or turned away, you did not abandon us.
When we came back to you, your arms opened in wide welcome.
And look, you prepare a table for us offering not just bread, not just wine, but your very self so that we may be filled, forgiven, healed, blessed, and made new again.
You are worth all our pain and all our praise.
So now, in gratitude we join our voices to those of the Church on earth and in heaven.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Lord God,
as we come to share the richness of your table,
we cannot forget the rawness of the earth.
We cannot take bread and forget those who are hungry.
Your world is one world and we are stewards of its nourishment.

Lord, put our prosperity at the service of the poor.

We cannot take wine and forget those who are thirsty.
The ground and the rootless, the earth and its weary people cry for justice.

Lord, put our fullness at the service of the empty.

We cannot hear your words of peace and forget the world at war
or, if not at war, then preparing for it.

Show us quickly, Lord, how to turn our weapons into welcome signs and the lust for power into a desire for peace.

We cannot celebrate the feast of your family and forget our divisions.

We are one in spirit, but not in fact, history and hurt still dismember us.

Lord, heal your church in every broken-ness.

Prayer of Consecration

For us you were born, for us you healed, preached, taught and showed the way to heaven;
for us you were crucified, and for us after death, you rose again.

Lord Jesus Christ, present with us now, for all that you have done and all that you have promised, what have we to offer? Our hands are empty, our hearts are sometimes full of wrong things. We are not fit to gather up the crumbs from under your table. But with you is mercy and power to change us.

So, as we do in this place what you did in an upstairs room, send down your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine that they may become for us your body, healing, forgiving and making us whole;
and that we may become, for you, loving and caring in the world until your Kingdom comes. Amen.

Among friends, gathered round a table, Jesus took bread, broke it and said, "This is my body, it is broken for you."

And later he took the cup of wine and said, "This is the new relationship with God, made possible because of my death. Take this - all of you - to remember me."

Lamb of God,
You take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
You take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
You take away the sin of the world,
grant us your peace.

Look, here is your Lord coming to you in bread and wine.

These are the gifts of God, for the people of God.

(Administration of the sacrament)

The Peace

Not an easy peace, not an insignificant peace,
not a half-hearted peace,
but the peace of the Lord Jesus Christ is with us now.

Let us share it with others.

Concluding Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands;
now we put our lives into yours.
Take us, renew and remake us.
What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us.
Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

To God be the Glory

To God be the glory, who great things has done!
God so loved the world, freely sending the Son,
who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
and opened the life gate that all may go in.

Chorus

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear God's voice.
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
The people rejoice!

O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,
and give God the glory, who great things has done!

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
to every believer the promise of God:
that when the offender, repenting, believes,
through Jesus' atonement, God's pardon receives.

Chorus

Great things God has taught us, great things God has done,
and great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son;
but purer and higher and greater will be our wonder, our gladness when Jesus we see!

Chorus
